Mucklow's Fine Jewelry Continues Legacy With New Owner

Robert Mucklow, Founder of Mucklow's Fine Jewelry, passed the baton of ownership to David Murray, local watch and jewelry maker and owner of King's Watch and Jewelry Repair. Mucklow is confident his name, legacy, and care for the Mucklow's family of team members and clients will carry on seamlessly.

[Peachtree City, GA, March 11, 2021—] For Robert Mucklow, Mucklow's Fine Jewelry was a labor of love. Desiring to leave his family of team members and loyal clients in the best possible hands upon his retirement, he hand-picked David Murray to carry on the legacy of innovative jewelry design and service to the community. He says, "Mucklow's Fine Jewelry has been the culmination of a long career in jewelry. I am grateful to the community for allowing me to pursue my passion for jewelry for the last 25 years. I am excited to pass the torch to David Murray. I have known David professionally for 15 years and have found in him the perfect person to carry on the legacy of MFJ. He is a talented professional with a true desire to serve the community. I wish him much success and thank the community for its past and future support."

David Murray, a master watchmaker with over 30 years experience building, servicing, and repairing watches and jewelry, is deeply connected to the Fayette and Coweta County communities. David also owns King's Watch and Jewelry Repair where over the years his passion for jewelry and jewelry making grew into a dream to own a fine jewelry store. He told a friend, "I would love to own a store like Mucklow's Fine Jewelry". Through Divine orchestration, just months after he said this, David's dream came true. (Hear more about that story here.) At the beginning of March 2021 David Murray became the owner of Mucklow's Fine Jewelry. When discussing the transition, Murray says, "I have the utmost respect for the foundation Robert Mucklow built here. Sharing the same values for serving our community and clients, I have every intention to steward and enhance this foundation moving forward."

Everything the community has grown to love about Mucklow's Fine Jewelry continues on, including the steadfast team who are an integral part of what makes Mucklow's Fine Jewelry special. All the team members continue on in their dedication and Jessica Rossomme remains the Director of Operations overseeing a seamless transition. Clients of King's Watch Repair will be happy to know King's isn't going anywhere and they will continue to receive the expert attention and service they rely on at King's Watch Repair in Fayetteville.

Mucklow's Fine Jewelry is dedicated to innovative, captivating jewelry design, showcasing skilled artisans and select designers, authentic, genuine customer service, and providing jewelry that celebrates life's most special moments without harming our planet.
